Whitfield House Luxury Retreat

The rainforest backdrop is sympathetically lit-up at night to maximise the natural beauty of the site. Pass through the iron entrance gates, drive up to the elegant porte cochere and enter the stunning Entrance Hall of this Federation-style mansion. Savour the elegance of the lofty ceilings and glittering chandeliers of bygone years.

Whitfield Room

The Whitfield Room, or main lounge, features the magnificent bar, milled from Queensland Maple over a century ago and taken from one of the first banks in the region. The bank manager's leather holster, found under the desk, has been preserved as a reminder of the lawless early gold-mining days.

Whitfield House Luxury Retreat

Is a place like no other, a beautiful venue where all staff continually strive to exceed client expectations, with award winning chefs and highly experienced staff trained to pamper every in-house guest and clients attending weddings and other functions.

Everything possible is done to ensure a pleasurable experience for guests staying at Whitfield House.
